

The Salt Lake Tribune

SALT LAKE CITY, TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 16, 1913.

By using Tribune Wants the housewife comes in touch with the intelligent class of household helpers.

14 PAGES—FIVE CENTS

ALLEN BURT, vice president of carmen, who checked riot at meeting in First Congregational church.

WAGON DEMOLISHED; AUTO DRIVER IS HURT

Chauffeur for Ball Cigar Co. Runs Headlong into Milkman's Outfit.

Shortly before 4 o'clock this morning an auto cab belonging to the Ball Cigar company collided with a milk wagon of the A. B. C. Dairy company, on West Temple street, between Fourth and Fifth South streets, fatally injuring Curtis Allen, the chauffeur of the auto, demolishing the wagon and crippling the horse hitched to it.

Dr. H. F. Sprague found that Allen could not live, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Allen of 82 E street, were sent for at 4:30 o'clock.

O. F. Millerborg, driver of the wagon, escaped by jumping as he saw the approaching car. He had just got into the wagon after delivering milk at the house on the west side of the street in front of which his rig was standing.

The unconscious chauffeur was found on the pavement by a Tribune reporter and the chauffeur who had driven him to the fire at the Curley stone works, Fourth West and Seventh South streets. The injured man was taken to the emergency hospital in The Tribune car and given surgical attention there. He was bleeding badly from the nose and mouth when found.

The wreck of the wagon and the car was noticed only after the chauffeur of the auto returning from the fire was forced to turn aside to avoid the crippled horse. The poor light near where the accident occurred made it impossible to discover what had happened without the use of a flash lamp.

KINGSBURY IS SENT TO STATE'S PRISON

Bogus Check Man Wanted in Salt Lake Will Spend Seven Years in San Quentin.

Special to The Tribune. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 15.—L. S. Kingsbury today was sentenced to seven years in San Quentin for issuing a fictitious check for $70 on the First National bank. Kingsbury was wanted in Salt Lake City, Denver and other cities for the same offense, and wherever he went he left a trail of bad checks. "Absinthe did it," Kingsbury said today just before sentence was passed.

Kingsbury was wanted by the police here for cashing a bogus draft on a Salt Lake bank several months ago. He was finally traced to Los Angeles. Soon afterward word was received by the police here of his arrest there. No further word had been received at police headquarters here until news of Kingsbury's sentence to San Quentin was received in the dispatch to The Tribune.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT IS FORMALLY OPENED

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 15.—The formal opening today of the Grand Army of the Republic's forty-seventh annual encampment was occupied chiefly with sightseeing tours to historic battlefields in this vicinity. A drizzling rain did not deter thousands of veterans from making pilgrimages to Lookout mountain, Chickamauga park and Missionary ridge.

Today was officially designated as "Lookout Mountain day," and the veterans swarmed to the scenes of the struggles of fifty years ago between Confederate forces under Generals Bragg and Longstreet and Union troops commanded by Generals Grant and "Pete" Thomas. Utah is represented by R. Osler, Salt Lake City.

Utah Postmasters. Special to The Tribune. WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The following Utah postmasters were appointed today: Willard E. Bey, Junction, Platte county; David S. Tracy, Yost, Box Elder county.

HABEAS CORPUS WRIT IS SERVED ON THE SHERIFF

United States Marshal Becomes One of Custodians of Thaw Until Released by Federal Court.

CASE TO COME UP AT LITTLETON TODAY

Coaticook Constable Who Arrested Jerome for Gambling Arrested by Immigration Inspector.

COLEBROOK, N. H., Sept. 15.—The judicial branch of the United States government assumed joint guardianship of Harry Kendall Thaw tonight by virtue of a writ of habeas corpus issued at Concord Saturday. United States Marshal E. P. Nute became one of the Mat-tewan fugitive's custodians and tomorrow morning Thaw will be taken to Littleton, N. H., and produced before Judge Edgar Aldrich in the United States district court.

The writ was obtained by Thaw's lawyers as a weapon against William Travers Jerome, in case Jerome should essay forcibly to get Thaw across the New York border. Before the federal court tomorrow they will seek to have the writ continued to safeguard their client should Governor Feltner find against Thaw in the extradition hearing to be held at Concord probably on Wednesday.

Jerome Will Oppose. Jerome will oppose the continuance of the writ and insist on an immediate hearing, even though there is a possibility that Thaw may be released from custody. Jerome believes Thaw's counsel would make no attempt to get their client out of the state under the circumstances and that Thaw immediately would be arrested and brought before the governor as arranged.

Both factions planned tonight to leave Colebrook for Littleton tomorrow morning. Thaw was eagerly anticipating the trip to Littleton. It is the first time, with the exception of bankruptcy proceedings at Pittsburgh, that his case has been in the federal courts, and the sovereign power of Uncle Sam gave him a sense of security against kidnapping.

Marshall Nute reached Colebrook shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. The writ he bore was directed against Holman Drew, sheriff of Coos county, or any other custodian of Thaw. But because the sheriff was absent temporarily, having gone to his home in Berlin for the afternoon, the marshal refrained from serving the writ and handed it to the sheriff in person on his return here tonight.

Thaw spent an uneventful day. Only once did he leave his hotel, and that was to get shaved. He heard with interest tonight that John Andrews, the Coaticook constable who arrested Jerome on the charge of gambling, was subsequently exonerated; had run afoul of the United States immigration laws. Andrews was held here in the custody of Charles Kelley, Colebrook's chief of police, pending the arrival of George R. Allen, a United States immigration inspector, stationed at Island Bend, Vt. Allen telephoned he had a warrant for the arrest of Andrews, charging him with assisting a pauper woman to enter this country in violation of the immigration laws. Andrews said tonight that he was a native of New Hampshire, although he had lived in Coaticook for nearly twenty years, and knew nothing of the charge against him.

John Lanyon, a private detective, who has been acting as Jerome's aide, caused Andrews to be detained. He had talked with Inspector Allen yesterday, he said, mentioning casually that Andrews was the man who arrested Jerome in Coaticook. "Why, I have a warrant for that man," according to Lanyon. "If he comes around here hold him and notify me." Jerome said tonight that he had heard on the day of his arrest at Coaticook that Andrews, his captor, was wanted in the United States for alleged violation of the immigration laws, but that he (Jerome) had had no part in the arrest today. Thaw, indignant, characterized the whole affair as a piece of police work. "The pauper woman into the United States from Coaticook to Reading, Mass. The maximum penalty for the offense is a fine of $1000 and two years' imprisonment."

Inspector Is Emphatic. Andrews was taken to Canaan, Vt., late tonight and will be arraigned before a United States commissioner tomorrow. "I can't be too emphatic," said Inspector Allen, "in saying that this man's offense was committed, and that he was indicted prior to the present Thaw case and prior to the arrest of Jerome at Coaticook. It is nothing whatever to do with the Jerome matter; we are simply doing our duty."

The complaint against Andrews recites that the name of the pauper woman in question was Hattie Willard Chamberlain. The authorities said that they had information that at one time she was an inmate of an insane asylum in Canada. It is alleged that she was "lunatic" across the border and "reached Reading, Pa., penniless." Her present whereabouts is unknown.

CHIEF ELEMENT OF DANGER LIES IN THE BANDITS

Washington Officials Do Not Believe Mexican Celebration Will Result in Anti-American Demonstration.

REFUGEES REACH SALTILLO SAFELY

Secretary Bryan, Confident of Their Safety, Sent Customary Instructions to Consuls.

LAREDO, Tex., Sept. 15.—American refugees from Torreon, Mexico, for whose safety fears have been expressed during their overland journey to Saltillo, reached the latter place in safety today, according to official advices received at Mexican federal headquarters at Nuevo Laredo tonight. Reports that they were molested on the way by constitutionalists were declared unfounded. The party numbered about 100 persons, including many women and children.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—State department officials were resting secure tonight in the belief that tomorrow's celebration of the anniversary of the Mexican independence, though it might be marked by interesting developments, would not jeopardize the safety of Americans in Mexico. They are confident that at the capital, where the federal authorities are in full control, there is no possibility of an anti-American demonstration that would involve risk of personal injury, while in the outlying states the officials are under the strictest injunction from General Huerta to extend full protection to Americans.

Danger From Brigands.

In the country dominated by the constitutionalists the various local leaders are treating Americans courteously, and, on the whole, the only element of danger is believed to lie with the irresponsible brigand bands that are particularly active in the southern section. Secretary Bryan said late today he was confident of the safety of the little band of American refugees which has been making its way from Torreon to Saltillo. However, he has sent the customary instructions to American consular officers to interest themselves in behalf of this party.

Messages also have gone to the American consuls at Chihuahua and Tepic inquiring as to the truth of the report that Morris P. Root, a nephew of Senator Root, had been shot at the latter place. In this case Mr. Bryan is acting entirely upon newspaper reports on the affair.

The embarkation of American refugees on the west coast of Mexico continues and the American consular office at Los Mochis reported that six American adults, eight children and one German were leaving the district for the United States on the cruiser Yorktown today. Seventy Americans remain at Los Mochis and there are fifty more in the district, mostly north of San Blas. It is expected that fifteen will leave on the transport Buford.

MEXICAN MINISTER OF INTERIOR RESIGNS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, Mexican minister of the interior, has left the cabinet. His resignation was accepted at midnight by Provisional President Huerta.

Dr. Urrutia is under charges preferred by Senator Manuel Calero, former Mexican ambassador at Washington, for arresting him in defiance of his immunity as senator.

Dr. Urrutia gave as the reason for his resignation of the ministry of the interior that the post required qualities which he did not possess.

He is a surgeon and had never before had experience in politics.

His antireligious sentiments have not been disguised during his term of office and it is said that the foreign diplomats here were opposed to his retention in the cabinet.

Dr. Urrutia was the author of the so-called Huerta ultimatum to the United States, which was promptly repudiated by Federico Canino, the foreign minister. Up to noon today no further news had reached here of the party of 100 American refugees from Torreon, who are on their way to Saltillo through the rebel country.

The American embassy is inclined to the belief that reports of the detention by rebels were without foundation. This is based on a telegram from John R. Stillman, United States vice consul at Saltillo, (Continued on Page Two.)

GOLDEN WEST BEAUTY CHOSEN MRS. POMEROY IN CONTEST

MRS. POMEROY of Los Angeles, selected to represent California as a perfect type of its beauty.

NARROW ESCAPE IN EARLY MORNING FIRE

Two Families Rush Through Flames to Escape; Stone Works Destroyed.

Two families narrowly escaped burning to death when the sheds of the Curley Brothers' stone works caught fire between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning. The flames, fed by the dry boards of the sheds, rapidly spread to the kitchen of the house next door, occupied by the families of Tom Samuelson and William Reeves, at the rear of 451 West Seventh South street.

Before the frightened neighbors could arouse the sleepers, the kitchen on one side of the house had caught fire, the flames waking the occupants. Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson hurried their nine children out of the burning dwelling through the flames and smoke. The four Reeves children, assisted by their parents, staggered out of their side of the house a half minute later. The men went back in and dragged out a few pieces of furniture, the only things saved.

The sheds, crane, toolhouse and a barn at the stone works were destroyed. It is believed that the blaze originated from the sparks of a passing locomotive. The fire was seen by Bert Silver, who was in the Silver Brothers' iron works near by. He turned in an alarm at 2:22 o'clock. The loss will be $15,000 or $18,000, it is believed.

Mrs. W. Reeves, a neighbor, told Patrolman Hathaway that about half an hour before the fire she saw a tall, dark man standing at the northeast corner of the stone yard shed. She said when she was awakened later by the light of the flames the man had disappeared and that the fire had apparently originated at the part of the building where he had been. The police immediately began searching the neighborhood for the supposed incendiary.

Chief Hywater declares the fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. The loss was $20,000.

Kills Wife and Self. By International News Service. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—John P. Hogan, formerly of Cornell, N. Y., and member of a wealthy Virginia family, this afternoon murdered his wife, Mae Olsen Hogan, by slashing her throat with a table knife. Satisfied that the woman was dead, Hogan went to the house of a neighbor, borrowed a razor and, before anyone could interfere, cut his own throat from ear to ear.

By International News Service. NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A halt in political activities in New York City's annual campaign through respect for the late Mayor Gaynor, was called today by John Pourroy Mitchell, fusion candidate for mayor. Edward McCall, his Tammany opponent, agreed and the political hull will last until after the mayor's funeral.

Salt Lakers in New York. Special to The Tribune. NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Waldorf A. Frank Belmont, A. P. Denniston; Manhattan, R. W. Young.

MURDERER OF GIRL IS MEMBER OF A GANG OF COINERS

Inspector Faurot Arrests Dentist and His Housekeeper as Accomplices of Priest Who Killed Anna Aumuller.

REVEALS PLANT OF COUNTERFEITERS

Schmidt Adjudged Insane in Germany, Where He Was Engaged in Fraud and Suspended by Bishop.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Dr. Ernest Arnold Muret, a well-known dentist of 801 St. Nicholas avenue, and his servant, Bertha Zech, were arrested shortly after midnight by detectives from police headquarters on a charge of counterfeiting.

Inspector Faurot, under whose direction the arrest was made, declares that Kaiher Schmidt, who yesterday confessed the murder of Anna Aumuller, was a partner of Dr. Muret in a counterfeiting plant that was discovered at 516 West One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street, and that the woman was an accomplice.

A plate for making $20 bills and certain letters found among the effects of Schmidt after his arrest yesterday morning are said to have led to the sensational arrests tonight.

More Sensations Likely. There were hints of still further developments tomorrow that would show that the pseudo priest was a criminal of amazing versatility.

His long absences at night from the rectory of St. Joseph's, where he was arrested for the murder of his inamorata, had always been accounted for on the ground of eccentricity, so that his fellow priests never suspected his criminal bent.

The woman, who gave her age as 20, posed as the wife of the dentist.

Said to Have Confessed.

Dr. Muret is said to have confessed, involving Schmidt. Detectives learned that Dr. Muret, under the name of George Miller, had on June 30 hired a top floor flat at 516 West One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street. He was accompanied by Schmidt who, it was understood by the janitor, was to occupy the flat as an equal owner. Mrs. Margaret Bowne, the agent, and Mrs. Rutledge, the janitress, both identified Dr. Muret tonight as the man who had rented the flat. They also identified photographs of Schmidt, who had given his right name.

Find Coining Plant.

In this flat the detectives found a well equipped counterfeiting plant. A bleached $10 bill had been jammed into a wash bowl after an attempt had been made to burn it. Muret admitted that he had attempted to destroy evidences of his crime after the arrest of his partner, Schmidt.

The Zech girl is held as a material witness, but from a statement she made at police headquarters tonight it may develop that both she and Anna Aumuller were involved in the counterfeiting scheme.

Dr. Muret said he was born in Chicago in 1884. He went to Europe when a boy and was educated in Germany. He is a graduate of a Berlin dental school. He came to New York in 1904. He did not say whether he had known Schmidt in Germany. He has a diploma from the La Salle dental school in Chicago, a correspondence course.

An obstetric forceps was found in the flat from which the prisoners were taken.

SCHMIDT INSANE OR ABNORMAL TO MARKED DEGREE

By International News Service. NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Many indications of the insanity, or at least abnormality of Hans Schmidt, the self-confessed murderer of 22-year-old Anna Aumuller, developed today.

Although the young priest, in an in-

(Continued on Page Two.)